The Advantage

Lifespace Personal Services is a licensed and accredited home health agency. Our team members go through a detailed interview process complete with comprehensive background and reference checks. The benefits of selecting a home health agency versus a registry is the assurance that team members are held accountable to the highest standards of care. The person caring for you is an employed team member of Lifespace, not an independent contractor. By selecting Lifespace Personal Services, you can have the peace of mind that Lifespace is taking responsibility for your care and provides ongoing supervision.
